

BIOGRAPHY

Tony Leech

CEO Government & Agencies Worldwide

Tony joined Sodexo in January 2003 following a 16-year career in the South Australian and Western Australian Prison Services. Tony was the General Manager Public Prisons in Western Australia, where he was responsible for the 12 Public Prisons in that State. During his career, he has held a number of senior posts in the Criminal Justice System including Deputy Secretary Department of Justice Victoria, Director Metropolitan Prisons, Director Prison Operations and Community Corrections and as a senior Prison Governor.

During 2010 and 2011, Tony returned to Australia where he held the position of Deputy Secretary of the Department of Justice in Victoria. In this position Tony was responsible for Corrections Victoria, Emergency Services and Police.

Tony returned to Sodexo in 2011 as Managing Director of Sodexo Justice Services.

In September 2015, Tony was appointed as CEO, Justice Worldwide and was responsible for Sodexo's global justice business, supported by four regional CEOs.

In May 2017, Tony was appointed CEO, Global Government & Agencies responsible for both the Justice, Defence & Government Agencies business.

As of 1 July 2018, Tony will become a member of Group ComEx.

Tony holds an Applied Science Degree from the University of South Australia and a MBA from the University of Adelaide.